The William O. Wagar Math and Science Scholarship Fund

PURPOSE

The William O. Wagar Math and Science Scholarship Fund was established through the Highland Foundation for Educational Excellence to provide a scholarship to the student who plans to seek additional education in the field of math or science in an institution of higher learning. The fund is inspired by 1983 Highland graduate, Bill Wagar, who died quickly in 2000 of cancer. Bill was a natural learner and loved to encourage young people to further their education. Bill found every aspect of life exciting, and he realized education as a great tool to open doors for discovery. Bill was a NASA Glenn Project Manager at the time of his death.
